

Al-Aqsa University (AQU) is a public Palestinian academic institute in Gaza Strip, Palestine, established in 2000/2001. It is the largest university in Palestine, more than 26,580 students officially registered and distributed to the 10 faculties of the University which include 45 certified program and 550 faculty members are teaching at the university. AQU is a member of several international associations, and works closely with numerous universities around the world.

The university offers a variety of academic and professional programs ranging from professional courses and diplomas through the Continuing Education Center and graduate and postgraduate programs.

Al-Aqsa University has the honor to be the sole university in Gaza Strip which offers baccalaureate degree in Sport, Fine Arts and Physical education.

The fields we are looking for co-operation: Education, Physical sciences, Biomedical Sciences, Mathematics and statistics, Arts and Human Science, Business and administration, Social and behavioral sc., ICTs, Art, Sports, Journalism and information, Biological and related sciences.

The action(s) that we are interested in cooperating: International Credit Mobility - Student and staff exchange, Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degrees, Capacity Building in Higher Education, Jean Monnet.

AQU has many cooperation agreements signed with EU universities especially with Belgium, German, French and British universities. Currently AQU is a partner in two projects of Erasmus Plus: Transforming Assessment Practices in Large Enrollment First Year Education (TAP) and Boosting Innovation in Curricula Development of IT Programs in Palestine (BITPAL).

Web address of the University: <https://www.alqsa.edu.ps/en/home/>