

4 October 2024

Press release

STAFF TRAINING FOR MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS DEPARTMENT,
ON INTERNATIONALIZATION ISSUES 23-27 September 2024

Members of the Department of International Relations of the University of Crete participated in the 6th Erasmus+ International Training Week of the University of Piraeus and the 3rd International Training Week within the framework of the International Mobility Group entitled "Innovation and Networking of Higher Education Institutions". The event was organized by the University of Piraeus on 23-27 September 2024, with the participation of numerous partners from Universities within and outside the European Union, from Balkan, African and Asian countries.

The main objective of this event was to strengthen cooperation between the representatives/participants, explore the conclusion of new inter-institutional agreements, introduce innovation in Higher Education Institutions, internationalization through intercultural dialogue and acquire new skills for academic and administrative staff.

In the framework of this event, various workshops, lectures and round table discussions took place on internationalization, new technologies, innovation, sustainable development and resilience in higher education.

Department of International Relations (Rethymno)

Department of International and Public Relations (Heraklion)